ABOUT

From the airwaves to the dance floor, Koko Love is a Paonia, Colorado-based DJ known for infectious energy, genre-blending sets, and a passion for bringing people together. Her DJ journey began at just 11 years old on KAFM Community Radio and eventually expanded to KVNF Community Radio before taking her sound to festival main stages, historic venues, and dance floors of all kinds. With an adventurous ear and an undeniable love for music discovery, Koko blends Funky House, Afro House, and Tech House with the infectious rhythms of Latin Fusion and World Beats. Unexpected hip-hop drops and bass-heavy grooves keep the dance floor on its toes, creating vibrant, genre-bending sets that invite audiences to move, connect, and discover something new.
